QA AREA 1-GOVERNANCE AND MANAGEMENT OF QUALITY ASSURANCE

1.1 GOVERNANCE

FRS Training has created an internal system of quality assurance that's purpose is to oversee and ensure the quality of education and training services provided to learners. All staff of FRS Training are core to the implementation and ongoing development and enhancement of the QA system. The governance structure (figure 1) is designed to ensure the integrity of all teaching, learning, and related academic activities while promoting continuous improvement and enhancement through ongoing self-evaluation and consideration of key internal and external stakeholders. Effective academic governance is achieved through several governance units, each charged with key accountabilities.

Governance Units:

- Training Board
- Academic Council
- Leadership Team
- Management Team
- Quality Assurance Committee
- Results Approval Panel
- Appeals Panel
- Programme Board(s)

The Academic Council holds ultimate responsibility for academic affairs within FRS Training and serves to protect, maintain, and develop academic standards. All academic governance units report to the Academic Council, allowing for the separation of academic decision making and approval processes from that of commercial. Operating as an Industrial and Provident Society/Co-Operative, FRS Training supports academic oversight, by including externality in the membership of the Academic Council, through an Independent Academic Consultant who also chairs the Appeals Panel.

Figure 2 illustrates an overview of information flows between key quality assurance processes (incl. Programme Development & Programme Review) and structures/roles.

QA AREA 2 DOCUMENTED APPROACH TO QUALITY ASSURANCE

FRS Training is an approved provider for the following accrediting bodies:

- Quality and Qualifications Ireland (QQI)
- Pre-Hospital Emergency Care Council (PHECC)
- City and Guilds (C&G)
- SOLAS
- LANTRA
- ILM

As part of our approved status FRS Training has developed a Quality Management System (QMS) that is supported by a range of QA policies and procedures (Table 1), covering all aspects of programme development, delivery, along with a suite of internal self-assessment and monitoring measures, that detail key quality assurance tasks in terms of ownership and responsibility. The documented approach to quality assurance with policies and procedures is aligned to statutory quality assurance guidelines set out by Quality and Qualifications Ireland (QQI), PHECC Quality Review Framework, 2019, City and Guilds and ILM Centre Handbook Quality Assurance Standards Version 1.0 9-August-2021 and Lantra Awards Provider Handbook v11. As a 1st provider of programmes and assessment leading to awards on the National Framework of Qualifications, ensuring internal systems meet QQI, PHECC, Lantra, SOLAS, City and Guilds and ILM guidelines.

The assessment procedures incorporate processes for 1st and 2nd party assessments. They will incorporate other party's own quality systems within the programme management and comply with registration with awarding bodies in contractual terms.

The FRS Training QMS includes regularly updated policies and procedures on each area of the 11 core QQI statutory guidelines which facilitates clear decision-making and follow-up. Systematic formal decision-making procedures are built into our QMS policies and procedures. Our policies and procedures also aim to align to the quality requirements of PHECC, Lantra, City and Guilds, ILM and SOLAS to the core areas as identified in Table 1.

As a 2nd provider of programmes awarded by QQI, SOLAS, Teagasc and through ETB accreditations, the internal systems meet awarding body requirements.

The management of QMS will be applied through the layered quality team, applying separation of roles and checks which maintain quality management integrity: Table 1 illustrates the policy areas and related policies and procedures in operation at FRS Training.

Continuous improvement and enhancement of the Quality Assurance Management System will be carried out using a systematic approach to self-assessment (Fig. 3).

QA AREA 5 TEACHING AND LEARNING

QA Area	5. Teaching and Learning
Procedure	Teaching and Learning	Reference	QAP5.1
Policy: FRS approach to teaching, learning is informed by an understanding of the needs of adult learners in the field of vocational education and training, and an appreciation of the challenges faced by adult learners both in developing their knowledge, practical work-based skills, and competencies, and in sustaining a motivated approach to self-directed learning. This can be illustrated by Knowles’ five assumptions regarding adult learners: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Self-Concept – Because adults are at a mature developmental stage, they have a more secure self-concept than children. This allows them to take part in directing their own learning. • Past Learning Experience - Adults have a vast array of experiences to draw on as they learn, as opposed to children who are in the process of gaining new experiences. • Readiness to Learn - Many adults have reached a point in which they see the value of education and are ready to be serious about and focused on learning. • Practical Reasons to Learn - Adults are looking for practical, problem-centered approaches to learning. Many adults return to continuing education for specific practical reasons, such as entering a new field. • Driven by Internal Motivation - While many children are driven by external motivators – such as punishment if they get bad grades or rewards if they get good grades – adults are more internally motivated.

QA AREA 7 SUPPORTS FOR LEARNERS

QA Area	7. Support for Learners
Procedure	Supports for Learners	Reference	QAP7.1
Policy: It is the Policy of FRS Training to provide a range of learning resources and learner supports which are coherent and integrated and which provide a holistic training experience for the learner throughout the programme. It is also the policy of FRS Training to ensure that the adequacy of the supports and resources available to learners is monitored throughout programme delivery and at programme review stage. Learner needs are identified at prior to programme commencement, with learners regularly being asked for feedback regarding the appropriateness of learning opportunities and learning resources available to them during training. The needs of a diverse learner population are considered as part of programme development and delivery, with many individual learner support needs being addressed by the programme Trainer where possible. through the FRS Training policy on Reasonable Accommodation for learners.

Learners are informed about the full range of services available to them.

- FRS website continuously updated to include a list of all support services available linked to Training policies and procedures e.g., Reasonable Accommodation Policy
- Sales Managers are made aware of the learner supports provided. Also, a copy of the relevant learner support policies and procedures is supplied to all Sales Managers for ease of reference.
- The communication of learners supports is included in the signed Sales Managers role and responsibilities declaration.
- Sales Managers are required to discuss Learner Supports at the enquiry stage and are required to correctly inform learners prior to programme registration if their needs can be fully addressed.
- Upon commencement of each training programme learners are required to complete an induction session which identifies learner supports and all relevant FRS Training policies.
- Learners are required to sign a declaration stating that they have read and understand the information contained within the induction session.

Learners are surveyed annually for their overall impression of learning resources and learner supports.

- Learner feedback questionnaires distributed and collected for every programme throughout the year.
- QA Dept provides additional oversight through monitoring visits to Trainers and programmes.
- All Learner feedback is collated regularly, to identify course issues and help early resolution.

Learner perspectives about the sufficiency and quality of learning resources and learner supports are listened to.

- All learner feedback forms will be reviewed by the Programme Board, QAM and all feedback will be summarised and reported to the Academic Council.
- Feedback review and a list of action points compiled with resolution action recorded, dated, and implemented.
- Issues in relation to training materials needing amendments are updated in consultation with the relevant subject matter expert.
- Staff and Trainers advised of the existence of new versions of training materials and informed by email of the correct version to use.

All learning resources and learner supports are responsive to (i) the needs of the programme; (ii) programme review and other evaluation activities and (iii) deliberative or decision-making processes requiring feedback on learner support.

- Programmes annually reviewed using learner feedback forms and IV and EV feedback as reference material.
- Recommendations of improvement are made and communicated to all relevant staff to ensure implementation.
- Subject Matter Experts (SME) will be engaged to review and amend course materials to ensure they are relevant to the qualification and industry.
- Trainers' CPD activities organised yearly.

Different learner support/resource units benefit from networking with each other to ensure a coherent approach.

- All staff complete relevant CPD training on FRS policies and procedures in relation to training.
- Staff meetings are held quarterly to discuss all matters and provide convergence.

Learner resources and supports are bench marked against standards.

- ETB quality assurance policies are used as a benchmark when developing policies and procedures.
- QQI updates are reviewed to ensure standards are being met.

Pastoral care

- All training personnel are encouraged to be supportive, empathetic and be willing to provide guidance. This approach is recommended in the FRS policy on Trainer Conduct and Behaviour.
- All Trainers are encouraged to seek support and guidance from FRS administration staff in relation any social, emotional, and educational issues.
- Safeguarding policy in place to safe- guard vulnerable persons and learners under the age of 18 years. This policy is available to learners at the training facility with the details of the designated liaison person clearly displayed.
- FRS policy on Facilitating Diversity, Equality and Code of Conduct (including harassment policy) in place to inform all learners of their right to enjoy a positive experience.
- Trainers to provide feedback to learners on a one-to-one basis in a constructive manner to encourage the learner's development and self- esteem.

QA AREA 10 OTHER PARTIES INVOLVED IN EDUCATION AND TRAINING

QA Area	10. Other Parties Involved in Education and Training
Procedure	Other Parties Involved in Education and Training	Reference	QAP10.1
Policy: FRS Training currently does not engage in collaborative provision relationships where another training provider advertises and delivers courses and wishes to claim certification through our approved centre. FRS Training are committed to ensuring that any collaborations arrangements and partnerships we engage with are organised with reputable bodies and are subject to appropriate internal and external quality assurance procedures. On occasion FRS Training are a third-party supplier to Education Training Board feeding into QA and certification processes. As a contractor, FRS Training must, at a minimum, meet the Quality Assurance guidelines detailed in the Sector Specific Quality Assurance (QA) Guidelines issued by QQI in the application of assessment processes. FRST must comply, and co-operate with, the ETBs Quality Assurance (QA) systems and processes. FRS Training, operating as a second provider for ETB Partners, conduct training delivery and assessment within the parameters of the Transitional Quality Assurance System and associated forms and resources. The following high-level process map is indicative of the workflow relating to QA on ETB programmes and compliance with TQAS requirements.
Method(s) used to carry out this procedure	Who does it	Evidence generated by this procedure
We understand as a provider we carry full responsibility for all aspects of delivery, including quality and standards, teaching by qualified staff, adequate resources and facilities, and adequate measures to protect the welfare of learners during a collaboration provision relationship with another training provider. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Collaboration arrangements will only be considered if they are viable as part of FRS Training’s strategic plan and are permitted within the approval status of our accrediting body. 2. Appropriate due diligence and approval by FRS Training Governance would be required before any other party/individual collaboration would be considered, with formal approvals by both the Academic Council and Training Board. 3. Collaborating other parties / individuals must be in a position to demonstrate quality and breadth of training and educational opportunities within the area of subject matter that complements FRS Training’s own existing provision. 	Training Board Academic Council General Manager QAM General Manager	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Third Party Collaboration Policy and Procedure • Communicating with Awarding Body Policy and Procedure • Third Party Training Delivery and Assessment Policy and Procedure. • Memorandum of Understanding • Minutes of meetings

4. Prior to approval an initial meeting with the QA Manager and General Manager and the collaborating other party /individual will be arranged to determine their alignment to FRS Training's quality assurance and teaching and learning ethos and values
5. Collaborating other party will be required to provide evidence relating to their academic, financial, and legal status.
6. FRS Training will develop a contingency plan.
7. FRS Training will get assurance from the collaborating other party.
8. Proposal with supporting documentation will be presented to the Academic Council and Training Board for approval.
9. Boards to seek further information from the collaborating other party in decision making process.
10. Memorandum of Understanding will be developed

Several ETB documents have been prepared to meet the requirements of the Qualifications (Education and Training) Act 1999. The documents and systems listed below are also related to ETB assessment:

Appeal of Assessment Result Procedure

- Procedures for Managing Assessment System Malpractice
- Learner Guide to Assessment
- Quality Assurance Assessment Policy and Operating Procedures
- Policy on Assessment Development, Marking and Grading
- Training Standards System

The ETB Assessment Regulations underpin the planning, coordination, conduct, marking and storage of assessments, the recording and approval of results, and the verification and authentication of all ETB assessments leading to the request of an award from recognised bodies whose awards are within or aligned with the National Framework of Qualifications (NFQ). These regulations specifically cover:
